PUPIL FREE DAY!

What a fun filled fortnight at Camp Australia. We launched our sports club with the help of sports fans and our educator Luke. We practised our skills in soccer, footy and cricket too.

We have had children and parents request to start their homework in the afternoon so we have also commenced a homework club where children work on tasks set by their classroom teacher and or complete activity sheets provided by our educators.

There has been endless talent and creativity expressed in the arts and crafts zones with children making colourful and sparkling jewellery boxes and masks. We have a wall of paintings as the children prove they love to paint pictures and experiment with different textures.

The children have been helping cook up some treats to celebrate two birthdays we had in one week and no surprise the most popular request was chocolate cake. We also enjoyed cooking cups of noodles, pikelets and spaghetti.

We have good news to announce as we have opened an opportunity for parents to book their children into our service on the pupil free day. We will be open on Tuesday the 3rd of March 2015 from 7am-6pm with a range of activities to get involved with including arts and crafts, sports and games, cooking and much more. You can book on line or with the Coordinator.

See you again soon!

Sincerely,

The Camp Australia Team
